

Canada's Competitiveness in World Energy Markets

2018 CCRE Energy Leaders Roundtable

- Is Canada's energy sector competitive in world energy markets?
- What is the evidence?
 - export levels
 - investment levels
 - the perceptions of foreign investors and importers
- What are the contributing causes?
 - political interference in policy-making
 - political interference in infrastructure planning and approvals
 - technological developments
 - economic literacy or the lack thereof
 - fundamentally irreconcilable policy objectives
(fossil fuel development vs. carbon reduction)
 - regulatory uncertainty/delay
- What can be done?
